

Rooms for small meetings and quiet work

Need a place to continue a conversation, meet with a few colleagues, or get some work done away from the bustle? Alongside the main programme rooms, the following spaces are open to all participants throughout the meeting.

Please be considerate of others using the rooms, and keep the Atelier quiet.

At a glance

ROOM	WHERE	SIZE	BEST FOR
Café at the cinema	ASTHE, ground floor	Café seating	Informal chats and coffee meetings
Holbeinsaal	ASTHE, 2 nd floor	Up to 25	Small group meetings (projector & screen)
Atelier	ASTHE, 3 rd floor	About 10	Quiet, focused work
Hl. Canisius (206)	Bischöfliches Seminar, 2 nd floor	Up to 20	Small group meetings (projector & screen)

Room details and how to find them

Altes Stadttheater Eichstätt (ASTHE)

Café at the cinema – ground floor

- Relaxed café seating for informal chats.
- Access to the left of the main entrance.

Holbeinsaal – 2nd floor

- O-form seating for up to 25 people; projector and screen available.
- Access via the staircase to the left of the main entrance.

Atelier – 3rd floor QUIET ROOM

- Block seating for about 10 people, intended for quiet, focused work.
- Access via the staircase to the left of the stage.

Bischöfliches Seminar

Follow the signs to the Bischöfliches Seminar or ask at the reception ("Pforte").

HI. Canisius (room 206) – 2nd floor

- U-form seating for up to 20 people; projector and screen available.

Main programme rooms

For orientation: these rooms host the plenary sessions, poster session and workshops, so they are not available for side meetings while the programme is running.

Festsaal – ASTHE, 1st floor

- Main lecture hall and venue for the poster session.
- Access via the staircase to the left of the main entrance, or through the foyer.

Jesuitenrefektorium (F006) – Bischöfliches Seminar

- Workshop room: U-form with 30 seats plus 32 in a second row; projector and screen.

HI. Thomassaal / Thomas v. Aquin (F104) – Bischöfliches Seminar, 1st floor

- Workshop room: U-form with 30 seats plus 32 in a second row; projector and screen.